

Artists Helping The Samaritans of RI

Our elegant space is best described as a boutique, vanity gallery. At extremely affordable rates for rental of wall and floor space, artists and craftsmen may display their work and, in turn, The Samaritans will provide complimentary events and promotional opportunities by which the products of the artists and craftsmen are exhibited.

Arrangements may be made for exclusive exhibitions or joint exhibitions in which the works of two or more artists and/or craftsmen are displayed in concert.

Art work may be displayed in honor or memory of a loved one or friend.

The Samaritans of RI may also host its own exhibits.

Please contact us to exhibit your work at the gallery.

Our Building's Historic Location

The Gallery is located in the restored historic Baker-Hanley House (c.1823) at 67 Park Place, situated in Pawtucket's Art District in the heart of the John H. Chafee Blackstone River Valley National Heritage Corridor. Within walking distance is the Slater Mill, a National Historic Landmark, the Pawtucket Visitor Center and the Blackstone Valley bike path. The Gallery is easily accessible to Route 95, a local hotel, restaurants, and more.

The Forget-Me-Not Gallery and Community Education Center

Denise Panichas
Executive Director

67 Park Place,
Pawtucket, RI 02860
401.721.5220

info@samaritansri.org

www.samaritansri.org

THE Forget-Me-Not GALLERY and Community Education Center

is an outreach program of

THE  Forget-Me-Not
GALLERY
FINE ART AND GIFTS

Our Mission

The Mission Statement of our Forget-Me-Not Gallery and Community Education Center is to partner with Rhode Island's creative community to foster hope, inspiration and commemoration of the lives of our loved ones who have fallen victim to suicide.

Our Artists

Our tranquil space is the perfect backdrop to showcase the work of fine artists and craftsmen from the New England area and beyond.

Community Education

Within the inspirational setting provided by the artists featured in our gallery, we also offer suicide prevention education programs for the community including businesses, educators and health care professionals, as well as the general public including adults, families and teens. We also offer programs in support of those who are grieving the loss of a loved one to suicide.

Our Gift Shop

The Forget-Me-Not Gallery includes a gift shop where we feature Rhode Island artists and craftsmen. We are also a retail site for Rhode Island based Alex and Ani jewelry.

Facility Rental for Meetings, Special Events and More

Our Gallery and Education Center is also available to rent for special events, meetings and other types of occasions.

For more about the gallery and all of our programs please visit our website at www.samaritansri.org or contact Denise Panichas, Executive Director directly at 401-721-5220.

Your Support Matters

Established in 1977, The Samaritans of RI remains the state's most trusted name in suicide prevention. Our Vision Statement is "To have a suicide free Rhode Island."

We work to be the "agency of choice" for individuals of all ages as well as for families, caregivers and other community stakeholders in Rhode Island seeking information relating to suicide prevention, grief support, education and resources.

By being part of Forget-Me-Not Gallery, Gift Shop and Community Education Center, you will not only have the joy of being part of an elegant environment but you will also have the satisfaction of knowing you are helping to support the programs of The Samaritans of Rhode Island.

